

Dewayne Bowerman, 74, of Amarillo died Wednesday, May 25, 2016.

Services will be at 4 p.m. Saturday in Quail Creek Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses.

Dewayne was born Aug. 21, 1941, in Wheeler to Cadron and Evelyn Bowerman. A graduate of Amarillo High school, he was married to the love of his life in 1960, and they were married for 55 years. He was known as a man who would give you the shirt off his back rather than see you suffer. He loved working with his hands and was a passionate Dale Earnhardt Jr. NASCAR racing fan. We lost a leader, husband, father and friend. He touched the lives of many.

He was preceded in death by his parents; a brother, Cleveland Bowerman; and grandson, Christopher Lee.

Survivors include his wife, Janice; a sister, Janet Loyless; his uncle, Charles; an aunt, Mozelle Carver; three daughters, Cindy and Billy Oldam of Haltom City, Christy Bowerman of Amarillo and Lori and Scott Henderson of Amarillo; nine grandchildren; and 10 great-grandchildren.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggests memorials be to American Cancer Society.

Amarillo Globe-News, May 27, 2016