JACK G. BRINKLEY

Jack G. Brinkley, 69, of Amarillo died Monday, Aug. 30, 2010.

Services will be at 10 a.m. Thursday in Saint Stephen United Methodist Church with the Rev. Ken Cole officiating. Arrangements are by Schooler Funeral Home, 4100 S. Georgia St.

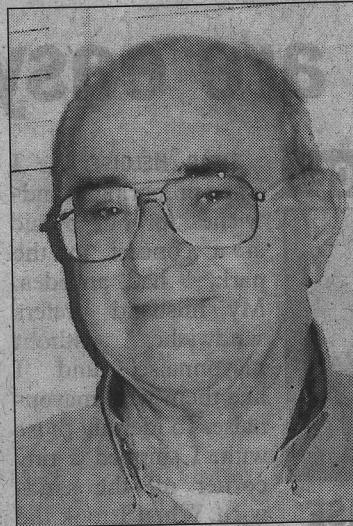

Jack was born Nov. 6, 1940, to Terrell and Helen Brinkley in Redding, Calif. He graduated from West Texas A&M University with a master's in marketing and business administration.

Jack was a teacher at Amarillo College and also taught for TWUA for more than 30 years. He was the casino black jack instructor with wife Shirley at Amarillo College for more than 30 years.

He enjoyed life as an avid collector of various items, which he loved sharing with his children and grandchildren.

Jack loved his out-of-town trips to casinos and using his experiences to teach his classes. He loved spending time with his friends and family, especially his children and grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his father, Terrel Reagan Brinkley; and an infant daughter, Tamela Kay Brinkley.
