

Sammye Clay

I have been married to Don Stark for 49 years this summer. We have two children, Scott Stark and Michele Daniels. We have four grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren. I am co-owner of Preferred Advertising. I love to crochet and cross stitch in my free time. My favorite thing I like to do -- other than being with Don -- is being with my son's two children, Savannah and Chance Stark, who are age thirteen and twelve. I have remained close friends with Doris Winter Blackaby and Lewis Morrison throughout all of these years.
