

Linda McCasland, 73, died Friday, Nov. 13, 2015.

Services will be at 2 p.m. Monday in Brooks Chapel with the Rev. Dr. Clay J. Brown, minister of Westminster Presbyterian Church in Amarillo officiating. Burial will be in Dreamland Cemetery. Arrangements are by Brooks Funeral Directors of Canyon.

Linda McCasland was born in Fort Worth. She was raised in Amarillo in a loving home by her parents, J. Murl and Pearl Miller McCasland. Amarillo continued to be her home for all of her earthly life. Linda attended Wolflin Elementary, Stephen F. Austin Junior High School and Amarillo High School. She continued her education at Trinity University, West Texas State University and Oklahoma University School of Pharmacy.

After college, Linda worked as a pharmacist at St. Anthony Hospital Pharmacy and Maxor Drug Stores in Amarillo and Canyon. She had a passion for adopting and caring for rescue dogs. Linda enjoyed playing golf and taking trips to the New Mexico mountains and the Texas Gulf Coast. She was a loving, caring woman who found special pleasure in spoiling her nieces and she will be greatly missed by her family and friends.

Survivors include a brother, Bob McCasland and wife Joan of Canyon; four nieces and their husbands, Kaye and Mark Gilliland of Canyon, Carol and Jeff Roller of Amarillo, Karen and Rudy Mediavilla of Amarillo and Keri Jane and Ryan Churchill of Carl Junction, Mo.; and 11 grandnieces and grandnephews, Travis, Elizabeth, Megan and Sarah Gilliland of Canyon, Josh and Jenna Roller of Amarillo, Elena, Anika and Enrique Mediavilla of Amarillo and Lydia and Julia Churchill of Carl Junction.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggests memorials be to Amarillo Presbyterian Home for Children, 3400 S. Bowie St., Amarillo, TX 79109; or Edna Gladney Center for Adoption, 6300 John Ryan Drive, Fort Worth, TX 76123.
