JANE ANN "JANIE" KRESSIN

EDEN PRAIRIE, MINN. — Jane Ann "Janie" Kressin, 67, died Tuesday, Feb. 12, 2007.

Services were at 2 p.m. Saturday in St. Andrew Lutheran Church. Burial was in Eden Prairie Cemetery by Huber Funeral Home Eden Prairie Chapel.

Jane Ann "Janie" Kressin passed away peacefully at her home after a two-year battle with cancer. She had just celebrated her 67th birthday Feb. 5.

She was born Feb. 5, 1941, in Amarillo, Texas, to James Earl and Opal I. Ritter Mead. She worked for 14 years in human resources for Freeport West, a nonprofit social service agency.

Janie had a strong relationship to many friends, to St. Andrew Lutheran Church, Beta Sigma Phi sorority sisters and her bridge group.

She was preceded in death by a son, Matthew, and her father, James Earl Mead.

Survivors include three children, Michael Sultany and wife Ann, Christina Cotner and Jim Sultany; seven grandchildren; her mother, Opal Mead; two sisters, Peggy Gardner and Marilyn Sherwood and husband Bill; and a brother, Jim Mead and wife Pat.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggests memorials be to Freeport West, 2219 Oakland Ave. S., Minneapolis, MN 55404.
