LONE GROVE -- Graveside rites for Seveta Jane "Sam" McCarty, 61, will be at 10 a.m. Monday at Lone Grove Cemetery with the Rev. David Gardner officiating. A memorial service will be scheduled later.

Born April 29, 1941, at Childress, Texas, to Robert J. and Hazel Marie Knight Spraggins, she died July 26, 2002, at her residence. She was preceded in death by her parents; a brother, Larry Spraggins, and a nephew, Scotty Spraggins.

She had lived in Ardmore most of her life. She also lived in Memphis, Texas, where she owned the Best Western Deville Restaurant. She moved back in 1997. She was also a beauty salon operator, working at the Little Brown Cottage.

Survivors include two daughters, Janet Eads and her husband, Tony, and Susan McCarty, of Lone Grove; a brother, Randy Spraggins, Ardmore; a sister, Sandy Young, Lone Grove; a sister-in-law, Ellen Spraggins, Ardmore; two grandchildren, Amy and Ryan Eads; a great grandson, Damian LeBron; a niece, Dena Lee, and three nephews Chris Young and David and Greg Spraggins.

Services are under the direction of Harvey-Douglas Funeral Home.
