

D. Lyman Stubblefield, Amarillo attorney, dies

D. Lyman Stubblefield, an Amarillo attorney, died Friday, Feb. 23, 2001. He was 60.

Services are pending with Boxwell Brothers Funeral Directors, 2820 Virginia Circle.

Mr. Stubblefield was born in Amarillo and graduated from Tascosa High School in 1959.

He earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from Southern Methodist University in Dallas in 1963 and graduated from SMU Law School in 1966.

STUBBLEFIELD

In 1970 he joined the Amarillo West Rotary Club, was past president and received Rotarian of the Year in 1988. He was active in the HOST and Teen Challenge Programs.

Mr. Stubblefield also was a long-time member and past president of the American Dairy Goat Association and a member of the National Rifle Association.

He was married to Judy Ginn in 1965 at Amarillo.

Survivors include his wife; two daughters, Shannon Ann Edwards of Troy and Emily Lynn York of Amarillo; two sisters, B. Kay Brummier of Dallas and B. Elaine Smith of Houston; and four grandchildren.

Amarillo Daily News, Feb. 24, 2001